Política Nacional sobre Drogas

Mensagem
ao Congresso
Nacional
2003

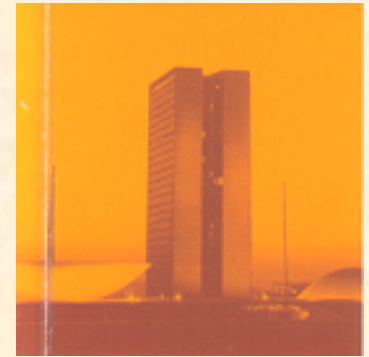

“The new national agenda for the reduction of drug demand calls the attention for the need of focus on the integration of sector policies with the National Anti-drug Policy, aiming at the widening of the scope of actions, the improvement of public budget allocation, and at maximising results for society”.

(Extract from the Presidential Message to the National Congress – 17 Fev 2003)

Mensagem

“...action needs to be decentralised in a municipal level, allowing the local implementation of demand reduction activities, properly adjusted to each municipality’s reality.

Hence the need of strengthening the structures of the National Anti-drug System, specially the regional ones, that, within this context, are the long “arms” of the system.”

MENSAGEM DO SENHOR PRESIDENTE DA REPÚBLICA A POLÍTICA NACIONAL SOBRE DROGAS

Brasília, outubro de 2005

Entre as várias questões do dia-a-dia que exigem atenção especial, temos o fenômeno das “drogas”. É um assunto que, direta ou indiretamente, diz respeito a todos nós - governo e sociedade. Esse tema pode ser visto sob várias perspectivas. Podemos apreciá-lo enquanto cidadãos de uma nação, membros de uma família, participantes de uma comunidade ou como indivíduos. E cada uma dessas perspectivas exige um engajamento total e integrado.

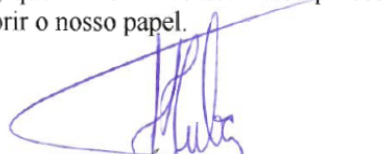

Dedicar-se a essa temática é tarefa de inquestionável relevância. Exige responsabilidade e conhecimento. Conhecimento científico atualizado e conhecimento de vida.

Nosso papel, como governo, consiste em envolver e dar voz a todos os interessados nesta questão, para facilitar a criação de políticas que estejam adequadas ao momento.

A Secretaria Nacional Antidrogas (SENAD), do Gabinete de Segurança Institucional da Presidência da República, consciente de seu papel de articuladora, promoveu e facilitou o processo para o realinhamento da Política Nacional até então em vigor. Toda a sociedade foi convidada a discutir e opinar sobre os capítulos da política, e, como era esperado, respondeu participando ativamente de todo o processo de realinhamento – o que nos mostra que, muito mais que parceiros, governo e sociedade são co-responsáveis pelo trabalho de redução da demanda e da oferta de drogas em nosso país.

A nova política orienta-se pelo princípio da responsabilidade compartilhada, adotando como estratégia a cooperação mútua e a articulação de esforços entre governo, iniciativa privada, terceiro setor e cidadãos, no sentido de ampliar a consciência para a importância da integração setorial e da descentralização das ações sobre drogas no país.

Meus parabéns, a todos nós, que nos envolvemos nesse processo, conscientes da importância de bem cumprir o nosso papel.

LUIZ INACIO LULA DA SILVA
Presidente da República Federativa do Brasil

The new policy is guided by the principle of shared responsibility, adopting as its strategy the mutual cooperation and the articulation of efforts among government, the private sector, civil society and citizens, in a way to raise the awareness to the importance of sector integration and decentralisation of actions related to drugs, in the country.
